

Agenda - Wednesday 22 June 2011

08:30 - 09:00	Registration - meeting material pick-up
09:00 - 09:40	Welcoming remarks Dr. Benoit Kalasa (Country Representative Ethiopia; UNFPA) Julia Bunting (Coalition Chair; DFID); Dr. Tedros Adhanom Ghebreyesus (Minister of Health of the Federal Democratic Republic of Ethiopia)
09:40 - 10:00	Keynote speech Dr. Babatunde Osotimehin (Executive Director; UNFPA)
10:00 - 10:30	Official opening (TBD)
10:30 - 11:00	Coffee break
11:00 - 13:00	Pillar I: A decade of achievements and remaining challenges Achievements and remaining challenges in achieving reproductive health commodity security followed by facilitated panel discussion and general discussion
13:00 - 14:15	Lunch
14:15 - 15:30	Pillar II: Country ownership: The multi-sectoral challenge of reproductive health commodity security Panel presentation from representatives of different sectoral constituencies identifying the constraints that prevent them from achieving more at the country level – hypothetical country case study
15:30 - 16:00	Coffee break
16:00 - 17:30	Pillar II: Break-out discussions Five breakout groups discussing different country experiences and successes/failures in promoting the “whole sector approach”. Two of these groups will be on specific themes – and each group will have discussants, rapporteurs and facilitators. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> A - Quality B - Advocacy for defining needs C - Human resources D - Access and equity E - Awareness and demand creation F - Strengthening the supply chain
17:30 - 18:30	Free time
18:30 - 20:00	Reception Hilton Sheraton

Agenda - Thursday 23 June 2011

08:30 - 09:00	Assemble
09:00 - 09:20	Report out Pillar II breakout groups - key action points identified
09:20 - 09:35	Story Inspirational account "Why we are here"
09:35 - 10:45	Pillar III: Country ownership in a globalized world Partnerships are a key strategic component in global frameworks and initiatives. This section of the meeting will highlight global initiatives and look into how partnerships have translated to and added value at the international, regional and local level and advanced RHCS, and highlight the role of countries in these processes. Session 1: Global Initiatives – Round table discussion
10:45 - 11:15	Coffee break
11:15 - 11:45	Pillar III Session 2: Regional partnerships - Facilitated panel discussion
11:45 - 13:05	Pillar III Session 3: Local achievements and remaining challenges - mini presentations and Q&A
13:05 - 14:15	Lunch
14:15 - 15:00	Pillar IV Session 1: Conclusions and recommendations of the meeting: Reflecting on Istanbul, the pre-conference session and the past two days
15:00 - 15:30	Coffee break
15:30 - 16:30	Pillar IV: Global commitments Session 2: HANDtoHAND and an opportunity for partners to make their commitment public
16:30 - 17:15	Pillar IV Session 3: A call to action [Increasing political commitment and financial resources and their more effective use to serve the RH needs of low-middle income populations]
17:15 - 17:30	Closing remarks Julia Bunting (DFID)